You will have a wide variety of missions such as

- Ensure sales at the shop: welcome & advise customers, take payments, wrap products, enroll new members into our loyalty program....
- Receive and enter new products in our cashier system and website
- Display in shop and windows
- Help manage our loyalty program
- Maintain our social media
- Help manage Website
- Prepare web orders
- Contribute to events
- Run the shop on your own on a regular basis

What we offer

- A friendly and very pleasant work environment in our lovely French fashion boutique
- A young, ambitious company always trying to innovate and improve
- A role being fully part of the multiple shop activities
- Free products and discounts
- Real responsibilities and opportunities to show initiative
- A great experience and opportunities to learn
- The perfect side job to combine with your studies
- Geringfügig contract, number of hours to be determined together, remuneration according to Kollektivvertrag (1800 brutto minimum on Vollzeit basis)
- You will come at least once a week for about 3h, 1 or 2 Saturdays a month, and will ensure replacements when needed (winter and summer holidays, business trips, etc.)

What we need from you

- Fluent in German and English
- With a knack for social contact: empathy, friendliness, politeness
- Digital native and social media literate

- Flexible availability, available on Saturdays (at least 2x a month) and for holidays replacements
- Hands on attitude
- Sense of fashion
- Be a creative force, entirely part of the team bringing in your ideas
- Be a genuine ambassador of our brand
- Love working in a team

5 KEY values

- Reliability
- Honesty
- Sense of responsibility
- Good mood
- Team player
