

WE ARE HIRING

production member l'atelier part time or fulltime starting immediately paper republic is one of the leading manufacturers of premium leather notebooks and accessories in Europe with one of the fastest growing shopify stores in Austria, selling online worldwide from our workshop in Vienna. We are a dynamic international team of 60 people with more than 15 nationalities who like to develop and implement ideas together.

Key responsibilities:

- Craft bespoke products uniquely tailored to each client's specifications, ensuring an exceptional experience.
- Coordinate with Project Managers to guarantee timely delivery of all orders.
- Offer personalised service by guiding clients through their projects, providing expert product and design recommendations.
- Develop innovative solutions that bring customer visions to life and consistently exceed expectations.
- Collaborate with the atelier production leader to implement efficient quality control procedures and refine processes for customised production.
- Work closely with the social media team to create engaging content that highlights the department's unique services and craftsmanship.
- Report directly to the atelier production leader, ensuring smooth, aligned operations.

Key qualifications:

- You're motivated, focused, and have a natural talent for hands-on craftsmanship.
- You've completed vocational training in leatherwork or a related field.
- You're confident working with a sewing machine.
- You communicate well in English and German is a plus.
- You bring a positive vibe to the team and thrive as a proactive team player, always offering creative ideas and solutions.
- You have a genuine passion for notebooks, leather, and artisanal craftsmanship.

We are offering you:

- a fulfilling job with a young, innovative, and international team that values your creativity
- integration into a dynamic, fast-growing company, where every day brings new opportunities and challenges
- flexible working hours and structured work processes, creating the perfect balance for your productivity
- interesting development opportunities
- monthly Happiness Events, summer festival, after work events, brunches and trips
- regular free lunches and dinners, as well as coffee/tea and sweets
- Vienna public transportation pass
- modern office in the center of Vienna
- paper republic employee benefits (50% discount on all our fantastic products)
- a monthly salary of gross 2.200€ for 40 hours/week, with adjustments based on education and experience.

We have awoken your curiosity? Send your application along with your CV to Anna (anna.s@paper-republic.com) and let us know why you would be the perfect fit for us. We're excited to welcome you aboard!

www.paper-republic.com/de-at/pages/we-are-hiring

